

And we all have better things to do while it's spinning around, right?

Everyone has some dirty laundry, right?

So, how can you go from guessing when your laundry is done...

...to knowing?

WaveRider

No quarters.

No waiting.

No guessing.

What could be easier than that?

So, how do you go from this...

...to this...

...without this?

Finally, there is one solution to both problems.

LAUNDRY SYSTEM

Now, doing your laundry is as simple as swiping your Visa or MasterCard, right at the laundry machine. No quarters needed!

In addition to this wonderful convenience, you can now check to see which laundry machines are available - before leaving your apartment.

Just log onto www.mywavevision.com and you can:

- A. Check machine availability.
- B. Find out how much time is left before your socks are dry.
- C. After your laundry is started, choose the 'Notify Me' option, and you'll receive a text message when your laundry is done!
